How We Collect Information About You: Momentum Therapy Center, PLLC. and its employees and contractors collect data through a variant of means including but not necessarily limited to letters, phone calls, emails, our online services, voice mails, and from the submission of applications that is either required by law, or necessary to process applications or other requests for assistance through our organization.

What We Do Not Do With Your Information: Information about your financial situation and medical conditions and care that you provide to us in writing, via email, on the phone (including information left of voice mails), contained in or attached to applications, or directly or indirectly given to us, is held in the strictest confidence.

We do not give out, exchange, barter, rent, sell, lend or disseminate any information about applicants or clients who apply for or actually receive our services that is considered patient confidential, is restricted by law, or has been specifically restricted by a patient/client in a signed HIPAA consent form.

How We Do Use Your Information: Information is only used as is reasonably necessary to process your application or to provide you with health or counseling services which may require communication between Momentum Therapy Center, PLLC. and health care providers, medical product or service providers, pharmacies, insurance companies, and other providers necessary to: verify your medical information accurate; determine the type of medical supplies or any health care services you need including, but not limited to; or to obtain or purchase any type of medical supplies, devices, medications, insurance, etc. Medical record information is maintained in the electronic medical record being used by our practice that is cloud-based and does not reside on a server on our premises. Paper records will be uploaded into the electronic medical record and these documents once so recorded will be destroyed. If there is a meaningful change in the type of storage used for the electronic medical record, you will be given reasonable notice of such change. Medical records generated by us are the property of Momentum Therapy Center, PLLC. and will be retained and destroyed at our discretion. You may request a copy of your medical records, in writing, at any time, and copy fees may apply.

If you apply or attempt to apply to receive treatment or assistance through us and provide information with the intent or purpose of fraud, or that results in either an actual crime of fraud for any reason, including willful or un-willful acts of negligence whether intended or not, or in any way demonstrates or indicates attempted fraud, your non-medical information can be given to legal authorities including police, investigators, courts, and/or attorneys or other legal professionals, as well as any other information as permitted by law.

Information We Do Not Collect: We do not use cookies on our website to collect data from our site visitors. We do not collect information about site visitors except for one hit counter on the main index page (www.momentumtherapycenter.com) that simply records the number of visitors and no other data. We do use some affiliate programs that may or may not capture traffic data through our site. To avoid potential data capture that you visited an outside website, simply do not click on any of our outside affiliate links.
